

PENNANT RACED HOT IN THE NATIONAL LEAGUE

Pittsburg, New York and Chicago in Close Battle for Rag Honors—Detroit Increases Lead on American Ladder.

So close drawn will be the finish of the race for the pennant in the National League that any one of the three leading teams, Pittsburg, Chicago or New York, may win. The defeat of New York yesterday was costly to that team, for even by winning the three remaining games, New York has to play with Boston, the Pittsburg Club can win the pennant without its last game of the season from Chicago to-day. On the other hand, if Chicago defeats Pittsburg, and New York wins its remaining games, New York can do no better than tie with Chicago. Thus it is seen that the game between Pittsburg and Chicago to-day will be the crucial contest of the entire season, disposing entirely of the chances of one or the other of the two clubs, if Pittsburg loses the game, that team will be behind Chicago in the final league standing.

Covaleski Goes for Giants.
PHILADELPHIA, PA., October 3.—New York lost to Philadelphia this afternoon, 3 to 2. Mathewson was hit hard, especially in the fifth inning, when they made two runs and took the lead. New York started a rally in the ninth, when Herzog reached second on his single, and DeVin's muff of the throw in. McCormick scored Herzog and reached third himself when Titus tumbled his single. Donlin gave Osborne a short fly. On Seymour's grounder to Knabe, McCormick was even out six of the home players taking part in the chase. DeVin struck out during the game. Mathewson was taken out in the eighth inning to permit Barry to bat for him. Covaleski, barring the first and ninth innings, had New York at his mercy. Score by innings: R. H. E.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., October 3.—Pittsburg took a firmer grip on first place in the National League pennant race by defeating St. Louis to-day in the final game of the league season here. The score was 3 to 2. Wagner's batting and fielding and a brilliant catch by Abbatichio of a line drive off Byrne's bat were prominent factors in the result. Singles by Abbatichio, Wilson and Maddox, with a sacrifice by Stokes, accounted for the victory. The game was tied in the second, and St. Louis tied the score in the same inning on Ketchy's single and Ludwig's triple. The visitors jumped into the lead in the next inning, when two runs were scored on hits by Clarke, Leach and Wagner. Thereafter only one more run was scored. Abbatichio doubled and Murray singled, scoring the former. Sensational fielding by Wagner kept St. Louis from counting in the sixth and seventh innings, and a quick play by Ketchy of Clarke's grounder retired Pittsburg unless in the ninth.
